CITY COUNCIL

Met in Adjourned Session in the Council Chamber Last Evening—Contract Let For New Brick Streets.

The City Council met in adjourned session last evening in the Council Chamber and a very interesting meeting was held.

A building permit was granted the Day and Night Orange Co. to build a fire-proof steel and concrete garage on East Second street.

A communication was received from Mr. Schofield stating that he was unable to secure Peabody brick for his contract and asked the Council that he be allowed to substitute Portsmouth brick. By the vote of the Council he was allowed to make the change. The brick will arrive in a few days and the work will begin immediately.

The contracts for the brick of Second street extension and of Carmel street were granted to Messrs. Vastine, Noland & Lowrey, the contractors for East Second street. They will begin work on these streets as soon as it is possible to do so.

Councilman Thomas reported to the body that the auditing committee of which he was a member, had found that they could secure a competent man to audit the books of the city and start a new and complete system of bookkeeping for about $150. He was authorized by the Council to make a contract with this man and to bring it before the Council for ratification.

After a long winded argument over the police force the Council adjourned.

HELD OVER TO GRAND JURY

William Gettis, a local painter and paper hanger, was given a hearing in Police Court yesterday afternoon on a charge of robbery. Gettis was charged with going to a room on Short street formerly occupied by Martin Fultz, who is now in jail for bootlegging, and taking ten dollars that was hidden behind a post card on the wall. He admitted that he had gone to the room and that he had found some money, but that he had not taken it. He was held over to the September term of the grand jury and his bond placed at $250.

RITCHIE-APPEAL

Mr. Roy W. Applegate and Miss Elizabeth Ritchie of Toledo were married in the county clerk's office yesterday by Squire Fred W. Bauer.

GEORGETOWN THREATENED WITH A DISASTROUS FIRE

Georgetown, Ky., July 7, (2:45 a. m.)—Fire that started here about 2:25 o'clock this morning threatened one block near the Lancaster Hotel. The Abbott livery stable burned with a loss of approximately $6,000. It has not been ascertained if the horses were burned or not. Their burning would mean an additional loss of about $3,000. The Stockwell blacksmith shop has burned. The Georgetown laundry, valued at about $6,000, is now burning and may be a total loss.

The cause of the fire is unknown. All buildings in the block are of brick. The blaze originated in the livery stable, and had gained such headway there that it could not be checked.

START CONCRETING

The contractors, Vastine, Noland & Lowrey resumed the concreting on Bridge street yesterday and made excellent progress during the day. A wheel of the mixer had been damaged in moving it across the bridge hence the delay.

NOTICE ELECTION OFFICERS

All officers of the last election are hereby notified to deliver all ballot box keys to my office as soon as possible.

JAMES J. OWENS,
County Clerk.

MISS ALICE NIELSEN

The Celebrated Soprano Did Not Appear Last Evening on Account of a Severe Case of Laryngitis Which She Contracted at Xenia, Ohio.

Miss Alice Nielsen, the celebrated soprano, who was to appear last evening and give her recital was unable to do so on account of a very severe case of laryngitis which she contracted in Xenia, Ohio. Miss Nielsen appeared on the stage to tell the audience how sorry she was not to be able to sing and she could scarcely speak above a whisper. It seems as if she was seated under an electric fan in the Ohio city, and the draft from it gave her a cold which developed into laryngitis. She will be unable to sing for the next week as her throat is in a serious condition.

The Redpath people do not do things by halves. They have arranged for Miss Nielsen to return at a later date and give her recital, which will be about the first of September and all who were present last evening were given tickets that will be good on her return trip. Mr. McEwan, the superintendent, said that if need be the tent would be brought back, and everything made up to the people.

In a personal interview with the Editor of the Public Ledger last evening Miss Alice Nielsen said she was very much chagrined over being unable to sing here last night and stated, "I will be back in September to sing to the Maysville people if I am alive." Miss Nielsen being one of the greatest sopranos in the world, is a most pleasant and charming woman and is accompanied on all of her trips by her private secretary, Mrs. W. E. Stickle, who is also a most entertaining woman.

It is to be regretted that Miss Nielsen could not fill her engagement here, as an elaborate program had been prepared, with all encores to have been of old familiar songs, many of which you hear her voice in the Columbia Records for which company she sings exclusively.

Maysville will be delighted to welcome Miss Nielsen on her return in September and she can rest assured the people will give her a hearty reception. One of the best musical programs ever held in this city was given in the place of Miss Nielsen. Her accompanying artists, Mr. Kirk-Smith and Mr. Redick gave a short recital on the cello and the piano. Their music was wonderful. Mr. Kirk-Smith on the cello being a star performer on that instrument.

The afternoon lecturer, Thomas Brooks Fletcher, gave an excellent address. Mr. Brooks was met by a small audience. Dr. Fletcher is not a stranger to Maysville people as he appeared several years ago on the Lyceum platform. He is earnest, eloquent, dignified and dramatic and is acknowledged as one of the leading lecturers on the Lyceum platform.

The tent crew left this morning for Athens, Ohio, where they will be for the next few days. Mr. McEwan made quite a number of friends during his stay in this city and he will be welcomed back next year if the Bureau should see fit to send him.

ALL NIGHT SESSION

The directors of the Ohio State League met last night in Portsmouth to discuss plans for the second half of the season. They held an all-night session and nothing could be learned of the meeting at press time this morning, further than the fact that the season would be finished.

Talk is going the rounds that the league is about to blow up. There may be two of the clubs drop out of the league but there are others waiting a chance to get in the league. Frankfort and Charleston are picked to drop but they do, Zanesville, Chillicothe and Ironton are anxious to secure a berth in the league and the space will be filled. The Lexington club will stick and the Portsmouth team is sure of staying. Maysville is somewhat doubtful but Huntington is assured for the rest of the season. Frankfort and Charleston are not in as bad a fix as they are figured by the knuckers.

SOME RECORD

During the four-game series here with Huntington the Hurley Cubs made a total of 66 hits and 55 runs or an average of 16½ hits and 13¾ runs a game. This is a record for the league and will probably not be duplicated in any other league this season. The twenty-three runs made in the last game on July 4 was also the league's record for the season.

OPENING DAY

The Washington Opera House will reopen this afternoon and a feature will be shown, "The Moment Before". During the vacation the house has been redecorated and now presents a beautiful appearance. The program for the week of the house will be found on the inside of this paper.

MAY FORM UNION

Several of the clerks in the local stores are anxious to form a union and a meeting will be held some time next week to make plans for an organization.

Hon. Hogan Yancey of Lexington, former manager of the Lexington Baseball team was in this city yesterday and attended the Huntington-Maysville game.

Mr. Raymond Sutton of Newport, Ky. is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Fannie Duley of West Second street.

Mrs. John Wells of Flemingsburg is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Blye of Walnut street.

Miss Jeanne Clark of Front street left yesterday on short trip to New York City.

CARRANZA IS TOLD NOTE IS WELCOMED BY UNITED STATES

Washington, July 6.—The de facto government of Mexico was informally notified tonight through Eliseo Arrondondo, Ambassador Designate, that the United States welcomed General Carranza's proposal to adjust all pending differences between the two governments by direct diplomatic negotiation.

Mr. Arrondondo was informed of the American government's attitude in a conversation today with Secretary Lansing after the latter had conferred with President Wilson. Later a formal note will confirm the Ambassador's report. Mr. Lansing virtually had completed a draft of the communication tonight but it may be read to the cabinet tomorrow before it is delivered.

Immediately after the cabinet meeting Secretary Lansing plans to leave for a month's vacation. Counselor Holt will administer the affairs of the State Department in his absence and meet Mr. Arrondondo in the informal discussions at which a solution of the Mexican problems will be sought.

It was evident at the State Department today that officials believe an opportunity now has been presented out of which may come a means of giving the de facto government material and in restoring order throughout Mexico. It is known that the pacific nature of the Mexican note, which brought the crisis between the governments to an end, is construed here as indicating that General Carranza, besides being impressed by American military preparations, has been deeply influenced by the pressure and argument brought to bear on him by friends in the United States, by European diplomats in Mexico City and particularly by representatives of many of the anti-American powers. The latter have exerted themselves to the utmost to avert war and to foster in General Carranza the idea of Pan-American unity.

MR. J. W. VALENTINE

Mr. J. W. Valentine of Reeterville was found dead in a field near home Thursday evening about 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Valentine had gone out on horseback and after having been gone an unusually long time search was made for him. He was found dead in a nearby field. Heart trouble the cause of his death. He leaves a wife and one daughter, Mrs. G. H. Turnipseed. The funeral will be held Saturday morning at the home with burial in the Maysville cemetery.

Miss Pearl Dodson of Towan, Ky., is spending the week with relatives in this city.

Mr. Henry Shea has returned home after a business trip to Cincinnati and Chicago.

Mrs. Wood Hitt of the county is a shopper in this city today.

THEATER HELD

By Messrs. Arn and Simons and the Place Will Be Closed For Some Time—Young Men Dismissed on Charge of Breach of Peace.

In Squire Fred W. Bauer's Court yesterday afternoon the two young men in charge of the Gem Theater were tried for breach of peace and were found not guilty by the jury in a very few minutes.

The young men had been put at the Gem to prevent Mr. Mills from taking possession as he had intended to run the show until the court had appointed a receiver. Messrs. Arn and Simons claimed that they had a contract with Mr. Mills which permitted them to go in the theater and take possession whenever he failed to make a payment on his notes. The young men refused to permit Mr. Mills to enter the place and he swore out a warrant for them for breach of peace.

Mr. Mills was represented by Frank P. O'Donnell and Mr. Lee Wright Browning and Mr. Leslie Worthington represented the young men and Arn and Simons. Mr. Mills claimed that he had a right to carry on the business pending the appointment of a receiver by the Federal Court.

Mrs. M. A. Ruggles, Mrs. Mabel Gregg and daughter, Miss Sara Herule, of Manchester, Ohio, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hehan of East Second street.

Woodrow Wilson declared in his Indianapolis speech January 5, 1915: "I want to pay my tribute of respect and affectionate admiration for the two great Democratic Senators from the State of Indiana. I have never had to lie awake nights wondering what they were going to do." What ever the President's freedom from concern was for them, the distinguished Senators undoubtedly had to spend many restless nights trying to conjecture where the leader of their team would land in the morning and what distance he had hopped during the watches of the night. The President, interpreting his own position, continued: "And the country is not going to trouble itself to lie awake nights and wonder what men are going to do. If they have to do that, they will choose other men." No President since 1856 has been so unstable, so uncertain and so undependable as Woodrow Wilson. Throughout his term the country has been kept awake many nights owing to the fops of its Chief Magistrate and it now seems as certain as tomorrow's sun will rise, that the people will choose other men next November to whom to entrust the destinies of this nation during the momentous years which are just ahead.—The Protectionist.

Belle of Maysville

The most wonderful whisky that ever drove the skeleton from a feast or painted landscapes in the brain of man. It is the mingled souls of wheat and corn. In it you will find the sunshine and the shadow that chased each other over the billowy fields; the breath of June; the carol of the lark; the dews of night; the wealth of summer; and Autumn's rich content—all golden with imprisoned light.

Drink it, and you will hear the voices of men and maidens singing the "Harvest Home" mingled with the laughter of children. Drink it, and you will feel within your blood the star-lit dawns, the dreamy, tawny dusks of many perfect days. For many years this liquid joy has been confined within the happy staves of oak, longing to touch the lips of man.

"VERY SCANTY" ARE SUCCESSES OF THE GREAT ALLIES' OFFENSIVE, SAY GERMAN MILITARY CRITICS

Berlin, July 5.—In view of the fact that the initial attack of every offensive is hardest to withstand, owing to the unavoidable effect of surprise with superior masses of troops and accumulated ammunition, the military critics here are unanimous in considering that the great offensive in the west has made a showing which can not encourage Germany's opponents.

Major Morant, in The Tageblatt, calls the Anglo-French successes "very scanty". He writes: "The critical moment for the success of a great attempt to breach a line is the time between the beginning of the enemy infantry attacks and of the counter attacks which the defenders are able to make after concentrating their forces. The enemy's success in the four days' offensive, from this viewpoint, is very small. The enemy succeeded in overrunning the demolished German first trenches in several places with heavy forces. The resistance could not be great because little except dead remained in the plowed-up trenches. Where the Germans stood on the defensive stubborn fighting occurred, and, as the enemy reports, the Germans fought obstinately to the last man."

"At other points the German leaders, with cool deliberation and with troops well in hand, bent back elastically. This counter tactic involved the enemy in embarrassment. As he was unable to impart the finishing stroke to the defenders with the first drum fire he had to begin anew with artillery preparation or attack the unweakened defenders as an alternative. The reports of the offensive must prove directly discouraging to the attacking forces."

"Paris heard the cannon thunder as in 1914. For let it again be said that the operative efficiency of the attacking British army is inadequate to break all our rows of lines, which have been most thoroughly constructed, and expel us from France and Belgium."

The Morgen Post critic says the latest reports show that the British and French are gaining no ground, but that the General Powers have made gains in Volhynia and south of the Dniester.

Other comments follow the same lines, absolute confidence being expressed that the Entente Allies are unable to menace the German lines anywhere.

The Frankfurter Zeitung refers to the French advance on Peronne as "remarkable," and continues as follows: "We know we are only at the beginning of the battle. The first pushes usually are dangerous, but it stands to reason that the introduction of very important reserves by the attacking armies which is to be expected to a certainty, will impose a very heavy task on the defenders. There is no question that the British will attempt to profit in their new offensive by the experience they gained through failure at the battle of Loos."

Herlinger Tageblatt's correspondent at the German headquarters says the fighting north of the Somme has lessened the prospects of the Entente Allies for a quick and systematic advance.

The Volks-Zeitung, of Cologne, says that in the widest circles of the German people the feeling prevails that if the allies' offensive is held up Germany will have accomplished a great deal.

You can always tell a pinheaded man. Praise puffs him up like a toad and he subsides only when he hushes.

TAX BURDENS TO BE INCREASED BY $200,000,000 THROUGH NEW REVENUE BILL

Washington, July 5---The administration's general revenue bill, designed to produce about $200,000,000 of additional revenue from increased surtax on incomes and from taxes on inheritances and war munitions, was favorably reported today by the House Ways and Means Committee and probably will be passed by the House Monday.

Two Republican members of the committee, Longworth of Ohio and Gardner of Massachusetts, voted with the Democrats for a favorable report but reserved the right to express during debate in the House their objections to the methods of the majority in framing the measure. The other Republican committeemen, Green of Iowa, and Cloan of Nebraska, while they voted against restoring the bill, gave notice that they expected to support it on the final roll-call.

General debate is expected to begin Thursday under a special rule providing for a final vote before adjournment Monday. That plan was definitely agreed on during the day by House leaders.

The committee report says that the "necessity for revenue legislation grows out of the extraordinary increase in the appropriations for the army and navy and fortification of our country."

The fiscal situation is summarized in this way:

"Estimated excess of disbursements over receipts for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1917, $266,922,000; additional receipts under the proposed bill, income tax, $107,000,000, estate tax, $17,000,000 (and it is estimated that the annual receipts from the estate tax will amount to $54,000,000 when the tax will amount to $54,000,000 when the law is in full operation), munition manufacturers' tax, $7,000,000; miscellaneous tax, $2,000,000. Total additional receipts, $187,000,000. Balance to be taken from general fund $89,922,000.

"Fortunately the balance in the general fund June 30, 1916, was much larger than at the end of any fiscal year since 1908. After deducting $59,000,000 for disbursing officers' balances there remained in this fund over $177,000,000. After deducting $69,922,000 from this fund, as above, there will still remain June 30, 1917, in the general fund over $100,000,000 exclusive of the disbursing officers' balance. It is estimated that the total appropriation for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1917, will not exceed $1,579,000,000. This includes $125,000,000 to meet the extraordinary expenses or disbursements occasioned by the Mexican situation. This and other appropriations that may be necessary to meet the abnormal and extraordinary expenses which may be incurred on such account should be financed by bond issues, as is always done by this and all other nations under similar circumstances.

"In estimating the actual disbursements it is proposed to deduct the sinking fund requirement included in the permanent appropriations at $60,727,000 for the fiscal year 1917, and also the postal appropriations estimated at $234,723,000 payable from the postal revenues. It is also safe to deduct as unexpected an equivalent to 5 per cent of the total estimated appropriations remaining after these deductions. Deducting the sinking fund and postal appropriations and the 5 per cent of the balance as unexpected and the estimated $125,000,000 of bonds to finance the Mexican situation leaves $1,015,122,000 as the amount for which it is necessary to provide revenue. The estimated revenue under present laws is $748,200,000. Estimated excess of disbursements over receipts $266,922,000."

It is probable that no other country derives as much revenue per capita from the people through consumption taxes as does the United States, the report says, adding that the revenue system should be more evenly balanced and a larger portion of revenue collected from incomes and inheritances of those deriving the most government benefit.

Receipts from the income tax under the bill are estimated at $227,000,000 annually. The proposed estate or inheritance tax is to be levied upon transfer of net estates, after deducting all valid claims and an addition exemption of $50,000.

Canada, Denmark, France, Germany, Great Britain, Italy and Sweden, it is pointed out in the report, have laws similar to the proposed munitions tax. In approval of a section of the bill imposing special duties on dye stuffs imports, the reports says the committee has decided, like Great Britain and Japan, "that this war anomaly as it affects dye stuffs can only be dealt with in a manner that under normal conditions would not be wise, justifiable or necessary."

SEVEN STRAIGHT

Is the Record of the Hurley Cubs for the Wind-up of the First Half—Trimmed Huntington by the Score of 15 to 3.

The locals made it seven straight victories yesterday when they defeated Huntington for the fourth game of the series and finished in third place. At the beginning of last week the team was reeling in the coal hole and it was thought by everyone that they would remain in said position. Notice the fatal difference when they left home. Won three out of four from Charleston and came home with a chance to jump into third place and stay there. And they took four straight from Huntington and clinched third place for the first half.

The game yesterday was another of those hit and run games. Maysville started early scoring five in the first. Coyle hit a home run. Wickham singled. Kaiser filed out. Williams singled. Jones followed suit scoring Wickham. McGraynor also biffed the ball for a single scoring Williams. Kohlbecker rolled out. Tinnin singled. Jones and McGraynor coming in.

In the second Coyle walked, being advanced by Wickham and Kaiser and scored on a single by Williams. In the fifth we annexed four more. Williams singled and scored on a lovely triple by Jones. McGraynor seat one out. Jones scored on a sacrifice fly by Kohlbecker to left. Tinnin belted one and then piffed second. Successive singles by Skinner and Coyle scored two more.

The visitors scored one in the seventh, Smith tripled, and scored on Lawrence's grounder to Williams. Maysville also scored four in the seventh. With two down, Coyle singled and stole second. Wickham walked. Kaiser belted one for two bases and Coyle and Wickham scored. Williams scored a safe one and our manager not to be outdone by Kaiser also let loose a double scoring Kaiser and Williams.

The Huntington team made their last ones in the eighth. With one gone DeLottel was safe on Kaiser's error. Stewart got his second hit. Shannon rolled out. Smith singled and DeLottel and Stewart furnished the markers. The slaughter of the innocents was ended in the eighth and Maysville scored here, fifteenth run. Tinnin whammed one for three bases. Skinner rolled out. Coyle flew to left, Tinnin scoring on the throw in.

NOTES

Coyle was the star of yesterday. He secured four clean hits out of four trips, one of them being a home run, and stole two bases. He also played good ball at short.

Williams had on his batting clothes again yesterday getting four hits out of five times up. His hitting is steady and comes when it is needed.

Shannon the catcher for the visitors was one of the poorest ever seen here. His work was wretched especially his handling of foul flies.

West Danby, N. Y.—"I have had nervous trouble all my life until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for nerves and for female troubles and it straightened me out in good shape. I work nearly all the time, as we live on a farm and I have four girls. I do all my sewing and other work with their help, so it shows that I stand it real well. I took the Compound when my ten year old daughter came and it helped me a lot. I have also had my oldest girl take it and it did her lots of good. I keep it in the house all the time and recommend it."—Mrs. DEWITT SINCEBAUGH, West Danby, N. Y.
